

MEDIA ADVISORY

Senators Wyden, Bennett, Casey, Governor Rendell and Mayor Nutter To participate in a conversation on healthcare reform

What: U.S. Senators Ron Wyden, Bob Bennett, Bob Casey, Governor Edward G. Rendell and Mayor Michael Nutter will come together at St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia to discuss recent efforts to reform health care in the United States at the federal and state levels. Senators Wyden and Bennett are cosponsors of "The Healthy Americans Act (S. 334)". Senator Casey is a champion of children's health care and Governor Rendell is author of "Prescription for Pennsylvania."

These congressional and state health care leaders will discuss how to eliminate health care inefficiencies, reward preventive care, and provide quality health care to all Americans. The panel will be moderated by Larry Mendte, anchor for CBS 3 Eyewitness News. Participants will be available to the media immediately following the discussion.

Who: U.S. Senator Ron Wyden (D-Oregon)

U.S. Senator Bob Bennett (R-Utah)

U.S. Senator Bob Casey (D-Pennsylvania)

Governor Edward G. Rendell (D-Pennsylvania)

Mayor Michael Nutter (D-Philadelphia)

Larry Mendte, CBS 3 Eyewitness News Anchor

When: Monday, February 11, 2008, 10 a.m. – 12 noon

Where: Wolfington Teletorium, St. Joseph's University, 5600 City Avenue, Philadelphia, PA

Admission: The event is free and open to the public.

Please RSVP to LKenney1919@aol.com or 215-330-0281.